- (g) to ensure the maintenance of proper standards of professional conduct by dentists and dental auxiliaries;
- (h) to hold inquiries into allegations of improper or unprofessional conduct by dentists and dental auxiliaries and to discipline those found guilty.

Council may appoint committees.

13. (1) For the purpose of assisting it in the exercise of its functions the Council may appoint committees and in particular the Council shall appoint a Dental Enrolment Committee consisting of—

- (a) the Chairman of the Council who shall be the Chairman;
- (b) the Secretary of the Council who shall be the Secretary;
- (c) the dentist holding the most senior dental post in the Ministry of Health; and
- (d) two dental auxiliaries.

(2) A person shall not be enrolled as a dental auxiliary unless he has been recommended for enrolment by the Dental Enrolment Committee.

Register of Dentists.

14. (1) The Council shall cause to be kept a Register of Dentists hereinafter referred to as “the Register”.

(2) There shall be shown in the Register in respect of every person registered therein—

- (a) his name and address;
- (b) the description and dates of the diplomas of which he is the holder; and
- (c) the date of his registration.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), a person shall not practise as a dentist unless registered in accordance with this Act.

(4) Persons who immediately prior to the commencement of this Act were registered under Part II of the Medical Board Act* shall be entitled to be registered under this Act without making application therefor, and until their names are entered on the Register shall be deemed to be registered. Ch. 29:50.

(5) The Register shall be open at all reasonable times and subject to inspection by any person on payment of the prescribed fee.

15. The Council may in order to be satisfied that the qualification of an applicant for registration is sufficient to assure the possession by the applicant of the requisite knowledge and skill for the efficient practice of dentistry—

Temporary
registration and examination.

- (a) grant temporary registration and make recognition of the qualification conditional upon satisfactory performance during the period of temporary registration; or
- (b) make the recognition of the qualification conditional upon the passing of an examination conducted by the Board of Examiners appointed by the Council under section 12.

16. (1) In granting temporary registration, the Council shall specify—

Conditions of temporary
registration.

- (a) the period during which such registration shall remain in force;
- (b) the nature and character of the work which may be performed by the person to whom such registration has been granted, and may impose such other terms and conditions as the Council may consider necessary.

(2) A person granted temporary registration shall have his name entered in a separate part of the Register and shall have entered against his name the terms and conditions in respect of which he was granted temporary registration.

*Part II of the Medical Board Act has since been repealed by Act No. 15 of 1980.

(3) Where upon the expiration of the period of temporary registration, the Council is satisfied that the person granted temporary registration has fulfilled all the terms and conditions imposed under this section and is a fit and proper person to practise dentistry, the Council shall grant full registration.

Auxiliary.

17. (1) The Council shall cause to be kept separate Rolls for each class of dental auxiliary.

(2) There shall be shown in a Roll in respect of every person enrolled therein—

- (a) his name and address;
- (b) the description and date of his qualification; and
- (c) the date of his enrolment.

(3) Subject to section 18, a person shall not practise as a dental auxiliary unless enrolled in accordance with this Act.

(4) The Rolls shall at all reasonable times be open and subject to inspection on payment of the prescribed fee.

Grace period for enrolment of persons performing as dental assistants,
etc.

18. Notwithstanding sections 30 and 31, where at the commencement of this Act a person is engaged in the work of a dental assistant, dental hygienist or a dental technician he may continue to be so engaged for a period not exceeding three months from the opening of the Roll in which he is eligible to be enrolled.

Opening of the Rolls.

19. The Roll for dental nurses shall be opened immediately upon the coming into operation of this Act and the other Rolls shall be opened on dates to be fixed by Order of the Minister on the advice of the Council, such dates being not earlier than three years from the coming into operation of this Act.

Temporary
enrolment and examination.

20. The Council may in order to be satisfied that the qualification of an applicant for enrolment as a member of a class of dental auxiliary is sufficient to assure the possession by the applicant of the requisite knowledge and skill for the performance of the duties prescribed in relation to that class of dental auxiliary—

- (a) make enrolment conditional on the passing of an examination conducted by the Board of Examiners; or
- (b) grant temporary enrolment.

21. (1) In granting temporary enrolment the Council shall determine—

Conditions of temporary enrolment.

- (a) the time during which such enrolment shall remain in force;
- (b) the nature and character of the work which may be performed by the person to whom temporary enrolment was granted, and may impose such other terms and conditions as the Council may consider necessary.

(2) A person granted temporary enrolment shall have his name entered in a separate part of the Roll and shall have entered against his name the terms and conditions in respect of which he was granted temporary enrolment.

(3) Where upon the expiration of the period of temporary enrolment the Council is satisfied that the person granted temporary enrolment has fulfilled all the terms and conditions imposed under this section and is a fit and proper person to be enrolled, the Council shall grant full enrolment.

22. (1) The Council shall cause to be kept an Honour Roll and shall cause to be entered in the Honour Roll—

Honour Roll.

- (a) the name of a dentist who in the opinion of the Council has made a significant contribution in the field of dentistry; and
- (b) who because of infirmity of body or any other cause is unable to actively engage in the practice of dentistry.

(2) A dentist whose name is entered in the Honour Roll may perform such functions as the Council may specify.

Secretary to keep Register and Rolls.

23. The Secretary shall keep and maintain the Register and the Rolls in accordance with this Act and the Regulations and shall make such changes as are necessary to keep them up to date.

Publication of lists.

24. (1) The Secretary shall not later than 31st March in each year cause to be published in the Gazette—

- (a) a list of the names of all persons who at that time are registered as dentists;
- (b) a list of the names of all persons who at that time are enrolled as dental auxiliaries; and
- (c) a list of the names of all persons who at that time are entered on the Honour Roll.

(2) The Secretary shall as soon as is practicable cause to be published in the Gazette—

- (a) the name of a person who has been suspended or whose name has been removed from the Register or a Roll; and
- (b) the name of a person restored to the Register or a Roll.

Certificate of Secretary to be sufficient evidence.

25. In every case where proof of registration or enrolment is required, the production of a certificate under the hand of the Secretary showing that the person named therein is duly registered or enrolled shall be sufficient evidence in all Courts of the registration or enrolment of that person and the Register or Roll shall not be required to be produced and any such certificate shall be accepted without proof that the person signing is the Secretary.

Registration of higher or additional qualification.

26. A dentist or dental auxiliary who obtains a qualification higher than or additional to the qualification which he held at the time of his registration or enrolment and which is approved by the Council shall on payment of such fee as may be prescribed, be entitled to have such higher or additional qualification shown in the Register or Roll in substitution for or in addition to, as the case may be, the qualification previously shown.

27. The Treasurer shall manage the funds of the Board and shall make and render accounts of all moneys in accordance with the Regulations.
